

AARON JOSEPH BURSTEIN

· aaron.burstein@gmail.com · 510.410.6964

EDUCATION

J.D., School of Law, University of California, Berkeley May 2004
M.S., Chemistry, University of California, Berkeley December 1998
Sc.B., Chemistry (with Honors), magna cum laude, Brown University May 1996

ACADEMIC & PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of California School of Information and University of California School of Law, Berkeley, CA July 2006-Present
TRUST and ACCURATE Research Fellow

Analyzing privacy, security, and innovation law and policy issues arising in networked information systems. Researching regulatory barriers to creating secure electronic voting systems. Collaborating with computer scientists and social scientists on multiple projects.

U.S. Dept. of Justice, Antitrust Division, Washington, DC Sept. 2004-July 2006
Honors Program/Trial Attorney

Investigated alleged civil antitrust violations in the healthcare industry. Reviewed proposed mergers for possible anticompetitive effects. Advised Department of Health and Human Services on antitrust issues pertaining to electronic health records.

Public Knowledge, Washington, DC June 2003-Aug. 2003
Legal Intern

Analyzed proposed FCC rules to mandate copy protection in digital cable equipment. Researched state laws pertaining to theft of cable television service.

Electronic Frontier Foundation, San Francisco, CA May 2002-Aug. 2002
Legal Intern

Researched and helped prepare motions in federal declaratory judgment action concerning television recording devices.

UCSF/VA Magnetic Resonance Unit, San Francisco, CA Sept. 1999-July 2001
Programmer/Analyst

Developed computer program to simulate imaging of chemicals in the human brain.

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

1. Aaron J. Burstein, Trade Secrecy as an Instrument of National Security? Rethinking the Foundations of Economic Espionage, 41 ARIZ. ST. L.J. (forthcoming 2009).
2. Aaron J. Burstein and Fred B. Schneider, Trustworthiness as a Limitation on Network Neutrality, 61 FED. COMM. L.J. 591 (2009).
3. Aaron J. Burstein, Amending the ECPA to Create a Culture of Cybersecurity Research, 22 HARV. J.L. & TECH. 167 (2008).
4. Deirdre K. Mulligan and Aaron J. Burstein, Implementing Copyright Limitations in Rights Expression Languages, PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECOND ACM WORKSHOP ON DIGITAL RIGHTS MANAGEMENT (2002).

MAJOR REGULATORY FILINGS AND TECHNICAL REPORTS

1. A Center for Correct, Usable, Reliable, Auditable, and Transparent Elections (ACCURATE), Public Comment on the Voluntary Voting Systems Guidelines Version II (First Round) (principal authors Aaron J. Burstein and Joseph Lorenzo Hall) (filed with U.S. Election Assistance Commission on May 5, 2008).
2. Aaron J. Burstein, Nathan S. Good, and Deirdre K. Mulligan, Review of the Documentation of the Sequoia Voting System, for the California Secretary of State's Top-to-Bottom Review of Voting Systems (released Sept. 28, 2007).

AWARDS

Berkeley Technology Law Journal Award for Writing Excellence, 2004.
Prosser Award in Federal Courts (Prof. William Fletcher), 2003.
American Jurisprudence Award in Cyberlaw (Prof. Pamela Samuelson), 2002.

RECENT PRESENTATIONS

1. Panelist, Identity Management in an Open Society, sponsored by the U.S. State Department, Washington, DC, Nov. 20, 2009.
2. "Trade Secrecy as an Instrument of National Security? Rethinking the Foundations of Economic Espionage," Intellectual Property Scholars Conference, Cardozo Law School, Aug. 8, 2009.
3. "Accommodating Security in Network Neutrality Rules," I3P Workshop on the Economics of Securing the Information Infrastructure, University of California, Berkeley, March 5, 2009.
4. "Choosing Voting Technology in the United States," The Carter Center's 2008 U.S. Presidential Election Study Mission, American University, Washington, D.C., November 3, 2008.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Program Committee, Workshop on Ethics in Computer Security Research (WECSR) 2010.
Member, Department of Homeland Security Working Group on Ethics in Network Research, May 2009-present.
Program Committee, Electronic Voting Technology Workshop/Workshop on Trustworthy Elections (EVT/WOTE), 2009-2010.
Member, ISAlliance-ANSI Workshop on Developing a Framework to Analyze and Manage Financial Risk for Cyber Security, March 2008-present.
Co-Editor, Berkeley Technology Law Journal: Annual Review of Law & Technology, 2003-2004.

BAR MEMBERSHIP

Member of the State Bar of California.