

BUKI in the Plock area

Research by ANNA BIENIASZEWSKA, requested by Bernard Bookey

I. Majer Szlama seems to be a transposition of the name Shlomo Mayer, for whom Sol Lask, Sam Bookey, and Sidney Bookey in England are named. We have seen other records for Shlomo Mayer Buki, who died in Wyszogrod in 1880, and a marriage certificate to Golda Rosen, so this is most likely the same man.

MAJER SZLAMA BUKI, a merchant, born 1808 in Lowicz, a son of Josef & Marye Nelkin Beer. Majer Szlama died in Wyszogrod 6 Aug 1880. His parents were merchants of the cloth & spices in Lowicz. Majer in Wyszogrod 7 Jul 1824 married to Gozda Rozen (or Tozca Gozda. She was born in Wyszogrod 1808, there are many mistakes and inexactitudes in the dates, in another record she was born 1815/, a daughter of merchants of the stuff – Chaskel Jakob & Ella Wozeck. The witness of this marriage was Chaskel Buki born 1780 in Lowicz, a merchant. He was an uncle of Majer Szlama Buki – a brother of his father.

Majer Szlama & Gozda Rozen had 3 children, born in Wyszogrod:

- 1) Ella Bajla Buki born 1835, married in Wyszogrod 5 Feb 1854 to Elias Kersztajn born 1834, a son of Szlama & Rojzel from Wyszogrod.
- 2) Hana Marya Buki born 1841, married in Wyszogrod 1859 to Chaim Enoch Lichtensztajn he was born 1841, a son of Michael Jakob & Gozda Cyril Rozen.
- 3) Izrael Buki born 1855.
