

WANTED

LUDOVIC LAZARUS ZAMENHOF

Inventor of "Esperanto." Revolutionary slogan: "The international language that works." Believed to have at least two million underground followers, and his subversive movement is growing!

ARMED: with a language so fiendishly simple that you can learn it from a book, yet powerful enough to handle any "situation."

IDENTIFYING FEATURES: Esperanto is estimated to be four times easier to learn than other languages. It is very regular, politically neutral, and practical. Esperanto is related to several languages, such as French, Spanish, Italian, German, and English.

DANGER: Zamenhof is attempting to spread international understanding. He is therefore dangerous and must be stopped!

IF SIGHTED: or for more information, contact your local Esperanto agent immediately!
